We are back with our acts of kindness.....

Donna goes the extra mile.....

Despite working lots of hours Donna has found the time to make a wonderful Dementia Cushion for one of our lovely Customers. These are designed to give lots of textures and things to feel and are great for calming anxiety in people living with Dementia.

Biscuit Deliveries.....

Remembrance Day was not missed this year despite the restrictions of COVID 19. We have several ex-service customers including one who is a World War 2 Normandy Veteran. To let them know they and all those who have served or lost their lives are never forgotten, we delivered biscuits to mark the day made by the wonderful Caroline from Kitschhen in Oakham.

Usborne book Donation.....

With all of the recent news of a second wave of COVID 19 our local Usborne book lady Gaynor Murphy decided to raise money through book sales, coffee mornings and donations to buy each and every one of our customers a book and activity to help alleviate the isolation another lockdown has bought. These have now been delivered to Wright Care HQ and will be distributed to our customers over coming days.

Gaynor raised £200.00 for our customers and we were touched by this heartfelt act of kindness.

Appreciation for the team...

This week we received an amazing surprise in appreciation for all our frontline staff do going above and beyond day in an out. We received a very welcomed surprise delivery for every member of our team from Bianca a consultant for Neals Yard, she creates bespoke packages and in a completely selfless act has done so for us. It is just great to see the community supporting each other in ways we would never have dreamt of before the pandemic hit.

Meet the carer Ashley Murray

Ashley has recently joined the existing care team; she has already shown her passion for care and has been already going above and beyond in her role. She brings an infectious smile to everyone and has a flare for care in all she does. We are very happy to welcome Ashley and hope you will all join us in welcoming her to the Wright Care at Home family. Ashley is covering the Stamford and Bourne area.
